AHRC Brooklyn Blue Feather Elementary School & AHRC Middle/High School each serve approximately 125 students who have autism.

Your support of this event will help meet needs at the schools that cannot be met with government funds.

Examples include computer hardware and software accessible to children of all abilities, arts and music programs, after-school activities and professional development for teachers.

The AHRC New York City Foundation is a fund-raising and grant-making entity that supports programs and services for children and adults who have intellectual and developmental disabilities, including programs of AHRC New York City.

AHRC serves approximately 11,000 people at more than 100 sites in New York City, providing schools, health care, job training and placement, supervised family-style residences and camping and recreation.
