

DEDICATION

To Anne Kraus, a founding member of AHRC who passed away during the period of this writing. To Anne, to all the founding parents who have gone before her, and to those time has not yet claimed, I dedicate these pages. Through her life and those of the others, through what they achieved by extraordinary dedication to their children, let us all be reminded that we are but temporary residents here with a basic responsibility to help build a better world.