Specific Understandings

By signing this authorization form, you authorize the use or disclosure of your protected health information as described above. This information may be redisclosed if the recipient(s) described on this form is not required by law to protect the privacy of the information, except as described below, and in that event such information may no longer be protected by the federal HIPAA privacy regulations.

If you are specifically authorizing the release of HIV-related, mental health, or alcohol and drug abuse treatment information, you should be aware that the recipient(s) is prohibited from redisclosing any HIV-related information without your authorization unless permitted to do so under federal or state law. You also have a right to request a list of people who may receive or use your HIV-related information without authorization. If you experience discrimination because of the release or disclosure of HIV-related information, you may contact the New York State Division of Human Rights at (888) 392-3644 or the New York City Commission of Human Rights at (212) 306-7450. These agencies are responsible for protecting your rights. You have a right to refuse to sign this authorization. Your health care, the payment for your health care, and your health care benefits will not be affected if you do not sign this form.

You have a right to see and copy the information described on this authorization form in accordance with agency policies. You also have a right to receive a copy of this form after you have signed it. If you sign this authorization, you will have the right to revoke it at any time, except to the extent that the agency has already taken action based upon your authorization.

To revoke this authorization, please contact AHRC New York City's Privacy Officer by:
